

Hunting A Job: Arming Yourself For a Better Job Search

UJA-Federation of New York's connect to care
The Jewish community at work for you

Date/Time: Thursday, February 11, 2010 | 2pm – 4pm

Location: Samuel Field Y

58-20 Little Neck Parkway | Little Neck, NY 11362

RSVP to: (718) 224-0566 or connect-to-care@sfy.org

Workshop Description:

This workshop will provide concrete tools and tips for locating job postings and hidden jobs, organizing your job search, creating a plan of action, tips for following up with perspective employers.

Provided in partnership with

F·E·G·S
HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES SYSTEM

UJA-Federation of New York's Connect to Care is a multi-agency initiative assisting families who have been adversely affected by the economic downturn and provides assistance with:

Employment & Career Transition Services, Legal and Financial Consultations, Supportive Counseling & Jewish Spiritual Care.