

Develop a Strong Resume

UJA-Federation of New York's connect to care
The Jewish community at work for you

Date/Time: Thursday, March 25, 2010 | 11am – 1pm

Location: Samuel Field Y

58-20 Little Neck Parkway | Little Neck, NY 11362

RSVP to: (718) 224-0566 or connect-to-care@sfy.org

Workshop Description:

Your resume is your ticket to an interview. In this workshop you will learn to write a resume that highlights your accomplishments and markets you as a results-oriented professional. We will look at the benefits of a chronological versus functional resume and help you prepare to discuss the achievements you have put on your resume with potential employers

Provided in partnership with

F·E·G·S
HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES SYSTEM

UJA-Federation of New York's Connect to Care is a multi-agency initiative assisting families who have been adversely affected by the economic downturn and provides assistance with:

Employment & Career Transition Services, Legal and Financial Consultations, Supportive Counseling & Jewish Spiritual Care.